Certified Aviation Services Announces Exclusive MRO Service Agreement with APOC Aviation Europe

Ontario, CA April 28, 2017 -- Certified Aviation Services, LLC (CAS) is proud to announce its signing of an exclusive business agreement with APOC Aviation Europe to become their strategic partner in North America.

APOC is one of the world's newest aircraft part-out companies. Today APOC allows CAS to put their official stamp on the creation of a total service solution. Under the terms of agreement, CAS will provide parts storage, component repairs, aircraft evaluations, maintenance and logistics support. This strategic partnership program is a unique platform, for aviation total solution providers, to build a strong customer relationship between service providers and their end customers.

Brad Caban, President of CAS, LLC said, "We are thrilled to work in a combined effort with APOC. CAS looks forward to working with such a young and innovative company. After an impressive startup in August 2014, they started their first tear down only 4 months later and have completed 5 teardowns since"
