CAS Receives FAA Diamond Award for Training Excellence for the Second Consecutive Year

Ontario, California, February 21, 2018 - Certified Aviation Services, LLC (CAS), received the FAA Diamond Award, the highest honor in the Federal Aviation Administration's Aviation Maintenance Technician (AMT) Awards Program. The award is designed to reward those technicians and companies who actively pursue additional training to enhance their aviation knowledge. This is the 2nd consecutive year that CAS has been awarded the Diamond Award setting itself apart from its peers.

Brad Caban, President of CAS Components said, "This award is recognized throughout the world as the most prestigious award available to an aviation company. This award is a measure of the hard work and effort from not only our Quality Assurance Team, but as well as our Technicians. CAS thanks the FAA for their guidance and recognition of our training program and our accomplishments."

To receive special recognition in the form of an AMT Employer Diamond Award of Excellence, an eligible employer must meet the requirements of 100% of its eligible employees receiving an individual AMT Certificate of Training for a given calendar year.

CAS operates its FAA Certified Component Repair Station in Fairhope, AL. The shop repairs and overhauls commercial and military aircraft, primarily focusing on pneumatic, hydraulic and mechanical components.
