

PRESS RELEASE

CAS Welcomes New Director of Operations

Ontario, California, February 14, 2019 - Certified Aviation Services, LLC (CAS), is pleased to announce the appointment of Jay Scott as Director of Operations for the Recovery, Repair and Modifications division. Mr. Scott will help develop and implement new strategies to deliver premier AOG service and support. He holds more than 19 years of experience in the aircraft maintenance industry. Mr. Scott's successful background in operations management, troubleshooting and LEAN principles will provide optimum performance to the division. In addition to providing customer success, Mr. Scott will be instrumental in working with CAS team members to provide customers with a faster turn around time.

Mike Turpin, Managing Director of Recovery Repair and Modifications, stated, "All of us here at CAS are thrilled to welcome Mr. Scott to the team. His wealth of experience in aircraft operations management and with National Aviation Authorities will help achieve the division's goal of obtaining new international certifications. Having Mr. Scott on our team will enhance our ability to offer an end to end service that includes final certification of work carried out globally. We look forward to Mr. Scott's contributions to CAS as we continue to expand to meet the needs of our growing customer base."

Prior to joining CAS, Mr. Scott held the position of Engineer Manager at Cathay Pacific, where he oversaw the West Coast and Mexico division. Mr. Scott studied at Brooklands College of Technology and then furthered his studies at Air Service Training LTD, Scotland to obtain EASA A, B1 and C license certification. In 2017, Mr. Scott received the Aircraft Maintenance Technology Magazine's Next Generation Top 40 under 40 award.
